With the great Chesbro pitching in his best form, Washington was never in the same class with the Yankees yesterday, and the Nationals failed to get even one run was so good that he seldom resorted to his Nationals at his mercy until the ninth inington a chance to tle. The task was too much for Big John Anderson, however, for he falled to get a hit at a time when a safe drive would have tled the score. It was Chesbro's pitching that made Yankees look so good, for they were not able to punish the delivery of Falkenberg. the Human Needle, after the first two innings. The game was won before it was hardly begun, and the score at the end of the ninth was the same as it was at the end of the second inning

McGuire's Timely Double.

Daddy Jim McGuire and Danny Hoffman won the game with timely hits while Chesbro was doing his part. In the second inning Williams laid the foundation for a score with a clean single to left. Delehanty sacrificed neatly and Hoffman drove a safe one rificed neatly and Hoffman drove a safe one past Schlaffy that scored Williams. The veteran backstop dropped the ball in right field near the foul line, and Hoffman scampered home all his hit a triple, but he stopped at second. About this time Falkenberg lost control, and after passing Keeler he hit Chase, but with the bases full Conroy with one out in the final inning, Jones drove a terrific grounder to left. Conroy made a great stop and a perfect throw, but Chase muffed the ball. Schlafty fanned for the second out, but Lave Cross made Gritfith uneasy by dumping a Texas Leaguer in short right for two bases. Anderson, however, tapped a grounder to Laporte, and that ended the game.

Only Three Hits for Locals. Chesbro allowed the Nationals only three hits. He fanned only four men, as he seldom uses his "spit ball."

The feature plays of the game were catches by Charley Jones and Hal Chase. Keeler was on first with two out when time and the catch surely saved a run. In the second inning, Manager Stam hit a high foul that came down near the right field seats. Chase ran over after it, but lost the ball in the sun and finally in desperation stuck out his gloved hand. The ball struck squarely in the glove and Chase held on to it, completing a play that was of the re-

Navy Lads Nosed Out Post Office.

Navy participated in another extra-inning game on the White Lot yesterday afternoon, this time taking Post Office into camp, 2 to 1. It was an excellent game and was thoroughly appreciated by the immense crowd that always turns out to see

Navy and the leaders play. Curnane and Haring were on the firing line and the game settled down to a pitchers' battle from the start, and until the last two innings it was the fastest contest ever seen on the White Lot. Both pitchers started a little wild, but soon settled down, and but for the two or three battery and fielding errors, that came just at the wrong time,

It would have resulted in a runless tie.

Curnane had the Post Office sluggers completely at his mercy, and had the best of the argument throughout. Even the fam-ous Rube, who has gotten eight hits out of nine times up in his two previous games against such pitchers as Sanders, Titus and Kinney, went hitiess. There was only one clean hit made off Curnane, and that came in the third inning, when Orrison beat out a neat bunt with two down. He stole second, but Adams flew out to left. In the fourth, with one down, M. Fenton was given a pass. Kerr sacrificed, Fenton got a good start and kept on to third, but when Post Office made a desperate effort and tied the score. Bradley beat out a scratch infield hit. Orrison struck out and Adams was safe on another scratch that got by Rau. Just at this juncture Curnane made a wild pitch. Bradley came on home from second, and then the wildest excitement followed when the umpire allowed this, instead of giving him one base, as called for in the ground rule. When the crowd had been driven back and the uproar subsided play was again resumed, and Clarke and Fenton went out on easy chances to second and short. In the tenth, Curnane, first up for Navy, was hit. Rau L streets, the score being 8 to 5. The next three men in this inning were easy outs. In the fifth Aloysius got another run. Camilier was hit and went to second on Kelley's out. Farrell flied to center, and on Taylor's wild throw to the plate Camilier scored. Their last run came in the ninth, when Hessler hit to right for a homer.

Excitement was intense for a while in the last inning, when Aloysius had three men on the bases and but three runs needed to tie the score, but their hopes were scattered when Farrell went out, short to first. The fielding honors go to Hook and Babson for C. A. C., and Hurley and Gallagher for the Aloysius. The last named got two liners off the bat that proved to be hand singers. The score:

FOUR FAVORITES WON AT SHEEPSHEAD

NEW YORK, June 26.-Form players had n inning at Sheepshead Bay yesterday, ur favorites and a hevlly backed second choice coming home in triumph. R. T. Wilson, jr.'s Adoration, 6 to 5 favorite, after running second in the Rosebud, two-year-old fillies, five furlongs, as disqualified by the stewards for palpable foul committed by Radtke at the last furiong pole. The Oneck Stable's Clare Russell, 11 to 5, won this event in a breezing gallop by three lengths in 1.00 2-5.

The ruling out of Adoration gave the place to E. R. Bradley's Baringo, 100 to 1, with August Belmont's Woodwitch, 12 to 1, third. S. C. Hildreth's Logistilla, backed down to 9 to 10, was easily the winner of the Grass Selling Stakes, one mile and a sixteenth on the turf. Knapp rode her cleverly, walting in behind Far West, 12 to 1, the pacemaker, to the head of the stretch, where the Locohatchee mare came away and won by two lengths from F. R. He went to the front on the far turn and won in a drive by three parts of a length from Dainty, also 10 to 1, who lasted long enough to beat Von Tromp, 9 to 5, a head for the place. Von Tromp was in a pocket for nearly three-quarters of a mile, and when Radtke got him clear he was running over the two leaders at the end. With any kind of good luck he could not have lost. Running Water, 7 to 2, was a length out of the money. Martin was shut off with Tommy Waddell on the turn. The mile was run in 1.39.

Easy for the Knight.

The seiling steeplechase over the short ourse was easy for Mr. Cotton's Knight of Elway, 8 to 5 favorite. Owens went to the front at the last jump and Elway romped nome with four lengths to spare in 4.10. T. Hitchcock ir.'s Tom Cogan, 5 to 1, beat J. E. Widener's Dromedary, 9 to 5, two lengths for the place. Little Casino, backed from 20 down to 12. after leading for nearly a mile and a half, fell.

Roseben showed once more that he had lost his old form when he was easily defeated by H. P. Whitney's Timber in the second race at six and a half, and a second race at six and a half.
